NUMB. 4057

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1745.

Rome, January 16.

THE deceased Princess of Piombino has nominated the Cardinals Caraffa and Calcagnini Executors of her last Will and Testament, by which she has made the Princess Belvidera Caraffa, her Daughter, her sole Heiress; leaving nothing to her Sons, but what she could not possibly withhold them. The Duke de Sora, who is her eldest inherits the Principality of Piombino, which with considerably above 20,000 Crowns a Year; and thereupon set out for Naples, in order to receive investiture of that Principality from the King. The de Fiano, her youngest Son, has a Legacy of 0 Crowns, vested in Trust for his youngest Son. Army of Spain is still in its old Quarters, but it ev'd will not continue in them long, the Train of ry preparing for their Use at Naples being very complete. It is observed that there have been, of several secret Conferences held at the Palace of the lier de St. George, and it is currently reported, eldest Son is shortly expected; which is look'd here as a certain Sign, that the Court of France Mind to accommodate, if possible, her Disputes Great Britain.

Alsheim, February 5. The Officers of the Regi- of Col. Block, who conducted the M. Belleisle, Chevalier his Brother, from Osterode to Steide, thro' this City on the 1st of this Month, in order turn to their respective Garisons. It was observ'd, one of those who composed this Escort, were in proper Dress of their Regiment; which, consider- they were upon Duty, appears a little mysterious. re informed here, that the Prisoners before-men- having talk'd pretty freely of their Confinement, e Manner in which they had been treated, to the de Freichapel, that Gentleman could not help them, that they ought to consider they were in wer of one of the greatest Princes in Europe; om it became them to speak with proper Re- and not indulge themselves in such indecent Re- ts. When they arriv'd at Steide, they were lodg'd e most commodious Houses in the Town; all venues of which were immediately possessed by ments of Guards, to prevent any Attempts that be made for facilitating their Escape.

Ibid. February 5. A Courier is hourly expected from rt of Spain, with the Collars of the Order of den Fleece, for the Prince of Conti, and the Count de Saxe. The Marquis de Mirepoix is ly in Conference with our Ministers; and it is ll be shortly created a Duke and Peer, on Ac- of some Negotiation of Importance, in which to be speedily employ'd; but at what Court, is a bout which our Politicians cannot agree. Some at as the Czarina has declared she cannot admit lion in quality of Ambassador at her Court; he thither in order to repair the Mistakes made by Minister. On the other Hand, there are some e confident that his Majesty will appoint him Am- Extraordinary to the Dyet of Election, which held at Franckfort in the Month of June next; Report prevails here, as if his Prussian Majesty appear as a Candidate for the Imperial Diadem.

Liege, February 6. The French continue their with all imaginable Diligence; and even proceed as to press Men near the Barriers of this City, Territories of Liege; which has occasioned some on both here and at Namur. They likewise re- with great Warmth, all over Flanders; and are forming three new Regiments; the First to posed of Scots, the Second of Irish, and the of Flemings. The Paymaster of the second Re- returning to the Head Quarters with the Sub- for the Month of February, the Corporal of his thought proper to desert with a Ruleau of 132 and made the best of his Way towards this with his Wife and Child; but stopping at a House, about two Leagues from hence, in or- take a little Refreshment, and loitering there too he had the Misfortune to be apprehended by a Hussars that were sent after him; but he had Luck to escape from them the next Night, get hither, where he is safe. On the 4th we e a most notorious Deserter, who, in the Space Years, had made shift to cheat, of advanc'd 22 Captains in our Service.

Givet, February 6. The Magazines that are forming here are very large, and some of them are almost full. Orders have been issued for bringing hither all the Corn and Forage that can be got together from the adjacent Country; and from all Circumstances, it appears plainly, that a numerous Army is to assemble shortly in our Neighbourhood. The utmost Pains is taken to recruit the Forces in the Countries where they are quarter'd, without depending on Draughts from the Militia; which some attribute to the Desire of having a more numerous Army in the Spring this Year than the last; and others, to the Impossibility of procuring Men in France.
